

Indiana State University
College of Health and Human Services
Department of Applied Medicine and Rehabilitation
M.S. Occupational Therapy
Other Costs

(in addition to Tuition and Fees, please see the university's Cost & Aid site.)

*The University Board of Trustees reserves the right to change fees at any time in the future.
The right to correct errors is also reserved.

- Other Expenses: (costs vary depending on the provider)
 - Health Exam (annual)
 - Vaccination Review (annual)
 - TB Test (annual, some sites may require two step/series tests)
 - Hepatitis B immunization
 - Personal Health Insurance (continuous throughout the program)
 - Background Check (may be required multiple times due to individual fieldwork requirements)
 - Professional Liability Insurance
 - Professional Dress Required by Fieldwork sites
 - Classroom participation devices
- Transportation costs are the responsibility of the student
 - Most Level I and Level II Fieldwork sites are located off campus and require personal transportation
 - When on Fieldwork, students may also be required to commute or use public transportation dependent on the location of housing
- Housing costs are the responsibility of the student
 - Fieldwork sites may be local and at a distance (nationwide)
 - Depending on the location, students may need to obtain short term housing to meet Fieldwork requirements
- Text Books & Educational Resources
 - Current edition of required textbook(s) and educational resources ($1500.00 estimated cost all 8 semesters.)
 - Students must abide by copyright laws.
 - Textbook listings can be found listed by course via the dynamic schedule.
 - The OT program does not regulate where you purchase textbooks.

- The online textbook list contains ISBN numbers to correctly identify the textbook.
- For convenience, the Barnes and Noble ISU Bookstore also stocks textbooks for purchase.
 - The ISU Bookstore supports ISU students by returning some of the profits from textbook sales to the University for Student Activities and Scholarships
- Educational Materials
Select courses may require the student to purchase additional materials
- Seat fees ($500 one-time payment) were established to identify students who are truly interested in matriculating into the OT program.
 - Money generated by the seat fee will be used for
 - Clinical polo shirts (embroidered ISU OT)
 - Name tags
 - Preparatory resources for NBCOT Board Exam (NBCOT/AOTA/TherapyEd)
 - AOTA Student Membership
 - IOTA Student Membership
 - Support towards Phi Theta Epsilon (OT Honor Society)
 - Support towards the Student Occupational Therapy Association at ISU
 - Community Projects
 - Support towards attendance at Professional Meetings (AOTA conference, Student conclave)
 - Support towards Student Missions Projects
 - OT Class Meetings
 - Support towards OT Pinning

 These costs cannot be accurately estimated due to variation in cost from providers and the unique situation of each individual.