

College of Health and Human Services Faculty Community Engagement Award

Purpose:

This award recognizes a faculty member in the College of Health and Human Services who has consistently provided outstanding community engagement opportunities for his/her students in collaboration with stakeholders in the local, regional, national, and/or global communities.

Eligibility:

- Appointment as a full-time faculty in the College of Health and Human Services
- Community engagement activities must have been completed while employed by Indiana State University
- The award can be won multiple times and previous award winners are eligible, but an interval of three years, not including the year of the award, must pass before the person is eligible to receive the award again.

Selection Criteria:

- Evidence of outstanding performance in one or more of the following areas: Community engagement activities supporting collaborative service learning experiences in the local, regional, national, and/or global communities
- Community engagement activities supporting collaborative service learning experiences in the Profession and Field (e.g., 'virtual' or technological engagement of a broad professional learning community) at the local, regional, national, and/or global level.

Nomination Process:

Nominations may originate from anyone in the College, including self-nominations. Nominations, letters of support, and/or materials should clearly identify how the nominee meets each of the criteria. All materials should be scanned into a single PDF document. Awards will be based on the materials submitted.

Nominations must be submitted by the posted deadline to the following link:
