

College of Health and Human Services Outstanding Service Award

Purpose:

This award recognizes a faculty or staff member in the College of Health and Human Services who has provided outstanding and dedicated service to the College of Health and Human Services and/or to the community.

Eligibility:

- Appointment as either a full-time faculty or full-time staff member in the College of Health and Human Services.
- Service activities must have been completed while employed by Indiana State University
- The award can be won multiple times and previous award winners are eligible, but an interval of three years, not including the year of the award, must pass before the person is eligible to receive the award again.

Selection Criteria:

Evidence of consistently outstanding performance in one or more of the following areas:

- Service to the College of Health and Human Services and service to Indiana State University
- Service to the local, regional, national, and/or global community

Nomination Process:

Nominations may originate from anyone in the College, including self-nominations. Nominations, letters of support, and/or materials should clearly identify how the nominee meets each of the criteria. All materials should be scanned into a single PDF document. Awards will be based on the materials submitted.

Nominations must be submitted by the posted deadline to the following link:
