

Student Learning Outcomes Library

Office of Assessment & Accreditation

Indiana State University

BS Technology Management

Spring 2020

Top of Form

Bottom of Form

Outcome	Related Foundational Studies or Graduate Goal
Perform a variety of technical activities the student is likely to manage 1.1 Apply fundamental technical principles
1.2 Plan and execute activities
1.3 Utilize computers and software in the industry
Communicate effectively in the technical environment
2.1 Exhibit good verbal communication skills	Foundational Studies 10: Express themselves effectively, professionally, and persuasively both orally and in writing.
2.2 Demonstrate fluency in written communication: Students will provide clear and concise information in writing	Foundational Studies 10: Express themselves effectively, professionally, and persuasively both orally and in writing.
2.3 Deliver formal presentations using appropriate technology	Foundational Studies 10: Express themselves effectively, professionally, and persuasively both orally and in writing.

Solve problems individually and as a member of a team
3.1 Use accepted methods to solve problems	Foundational Studies 2: Critically evaluate the ideas of others.
3.2 Use management principles to solve problems	Foundational Studies 2: Critically evaluate the ideas of others.
3.3 Interact with team members to communicate: Students will work in teams to prepare formal presentations	Foundational Studies 10: Express themselves effectively, professionally, and persuasively both orally and in writing.
Make management-related decisions
4.1 Demonstrate management planning skills
4.2 Demonstrate management organization skills
4.3 Demonstrate management controlling skills
Demonstrate appropriate professional and ethical behavior
5.1 Exhibit professional behavior in their work environment
5.2 Display ethical behavior in their work environment
5.3 Model socially responsible behavior in their work environment	