

“Let’s Talk” is a program provided by ISU Student Counseling Center where you can connect with us informally in YOUR space! Counselors can listen to specific problems, provide support, and help with exploring solutions or other resources.

For fall semester, Iris from the SCC will be in the AACCC library to meet with students in 15 minute blocks.

Every Tuesday between 4—5 PM beginning August 31st.